

Samar De Lao

Empresa Artesanal Samar de Lao SRL is a Peruvian company that started as a family business early in 2002. It was founded by Mario Quispe and is now managed by his daughter Maritza Quispe. She has retained from that time its initial goals based on fashion development, including knitted fabric classic and modern designs according to the current trend.

Our own style reflected in our brand "NAZKA" has led us to specialize exclusively in designs manufactured with advanced techniques that meet the physical and emotional needs of our clients.

Samar de Lao is currently present in foreign markets such as France, Mexico and Latin America. For more than 08 consecutive years it is offering to our distinguished foreign consumers, high quality clothes with an added value, manufactured with Peruvian alpaca fibers, sheep wool, cotton, which provide long-lasting, hard-wearing natural colors. Fibers have a natural brightness and do not cause allergies for being antiperspirant.

Samar de Lao has 30 coworkers trained in different areas with wide experience in finishings and designs. They are trained permanently by our company and more than 60 coworkers participate during campaigns. It is a very competitive human group looking for achieving efficiency and competitiveness.

On the other hand, Samar de Lao is also concerned about social environment. Consequently, it has formed empowerment shops for women, such as Embroidery shops aimed at searching for their personal and social growth, supporting them to increase their family income and making them part of the workforce.

It also provides consultancy to production shops in Mining Settlements such as “CHICLA”, whose workers take advantage of the mine resources to manufacture and sell their own products.

Samar de Lao, being aware of the environmental care, has made sure that the raw material used in manufacture has been produced with a minimum amount of pesticides and with a fair payment; a requirement to offer it as an Organic garment.

Samar de Lao, managed by Maritza Quispe P., General Manager, with a team of qualified professionals provides its services at its premises:
